Pork Shoulder Blind Taste Competition Guidelines

The blind judging is your finished barbecue product as you want it presented to the judges.

*Entries are a blend of cooked meat, sauce, and seasonings.

*Entries must be turned in within the stated time limit.

*Entries may include individual chips of crackling for the judges, and crackling bits may also be blended into the prepared barbecue, if desired.

*Blind box entries should not include garnishes, extra sauce containers, or foreign objects such as aluminum foil, toothpicks, etc...

*Blind BBQ entries are to be judged on appearance, tenderness, and taste.

*Appearance includes texture, color, fat to lean ratio, burnt meat and the visual appearance of the BBQ as a food product.

*Tenderness is based on moistness and tenderness of the BBQ. Entries should not be dry, burnt, tough or mushy.

*Taste of the entry should be pleasing, should not be excessively hot from the sauce and seasonings, and should also not be bland. The BBQ should be appealing and enjoyable to a typical BBQ customer.

*The NC Pork Council's Blind Taste Judging Score Sheet will be used for scoring of the entries.
